can be the happiest time. You're just a kid and don't care about problems. You want to discover the world around you, you don't understand a lot of things. What can bother you at all?

But what about children that live in unstable families? With ~~a~~ violent parents, for example? Is it really a happy time with a lot of bruises and scratches? Of course not. Or living without parents at all? I don't even have childhood. What person it will be?

At the end I can say that children must live happily and have good parents. And only stable, smart, well-mannered and prepared for this people can have children. Children must be wanted.
