and fun. In that "magic" period of ~~the~~ your life you have much less stress and reasons to be depressed. Everyday feels like Sunday. You get interesting information about the world around you. In childhood you have much less duties or your duties will be like a game to you because of conditions of the job ^{that} you have to do. For example my friend in primary school was taught some knowledge through the game. That's why I agree with that statement and I want to return to the childhood very much.
