I think that children are not so happy. Child plays different games, plays with other children. Your parents care for you all the time. Children have a lot of time. They do not spend it on routines and hard work and ^{they do not know,} ~~it is~~ They are so lucky. They only play, walk and go to the parks.

In this age children go to the kind of the garden. There they can make friends very easily.

But when you become more older you can lose your friends. But in rare situations people can keep friends and a relationship for a long time. If you are a child don't lose your time and spend it to things which you love and like.
