I consider that students should have a long summer holiday. Long summer vacation has many pros and cons, and I would like to tell you about them.

The main benefit of the long summer holiday is possibility for students to have much free time, ^{which} ~~that~~ can be spent on some leisure activities, such as travelling, outside walking or just communicating with ~~headquarters~~ ^{relatives}. Actually, summer vacation allows students to have one long holiday, which is not divided to small vacations. That makes students possible to have enjoyable and productive rest.

To my mind, the main drawback of long summer holiday is having less learning time, than without it. If you have more vacation days, you will have less studying days, it is obvious. So it is much better for studying to have short summer holiday, and longer terms.

Thus, summing up the above, I can say that I ~~prefer~~ ^{enjoy} a long summer holiday more, than a short one. As for me, having much free time is a good opportunity for students to have an enjoyable rest. Also, when you have a long vacation it is much easier to organize a rest, that ~~the holiday~~ ^{takes} much time. And, of course, you simply have more time on some leisure activities. These statements ~~clearly~~ ^{convincingly} make me consider, that having a long summer holiday is much better, than having a longer terms.
