To be honest, I think that holidays and terms should be balanced because students have a limit of work and they need a rest for their future learning. About terms. To my mind, A lot of holidays can make students more lazy than balanced holidays.

I think, holidays should be funny and useful for students because their feelings are important for their own life and of course for school (subsequent learning). They can reading, swimming and another activities at the holidays. So, I like have a sport with the holiday. that gives my mind freedom and good feelings so I can play with my classmates because it is good and cool for me. My classmates studying all the holidays for themselves and I think that's right. We are good class.

I guess, that learning at school should be useful and not boring because students progress depends on teachers, school and their own ^{class}. Their learning shouldn't be negative and boring that's why studying should be balanced.

That's all I want to write in my essay
